

Hungary's gift to jazz: Meet Julia Karosi

by Grady Harp at Amazon

"A whole new sound awaits the listener fortunate to come across this CD! Julia Karosi is one of Hungary's top jazz vocalists. After graduating from the Franz Liszt Music Academy in Budapest, Julia founded her own quartet in 2011. This album, well titled 'Hidden Roots', contains a number of Julia's new compositions and the name eludes to, arrangements of Hungarian folk songs. The compositions are beautifully and intelligently written, performed with great inspiration, crossing all boundaries of jazz. But the real attraction is the extraordinary musicality of Julia Karosi - a resplendent voice, full of beauty and intelligence, all that and a team of superb musicians backing her.

The Ensemble is Júlia Karosi, vocals, Áron Tálás, piano, vocal, Ádám Bögöthy, bass, Bendegúz Varga, drums, Tobias Meinhart, tenor saxophone with Linda Kovács, vocals.

The Track Listing is as follows:

The Miraculous Deer

Édesanyám rózsafája

Noah's Ark

Imhol kerekedik

Hidden Roots

Floating Island

Seed

Race Against Time

Szól a kakas már

Sinus Motion

Hymn to Love

A new musician to us and a whole new realm of classic jazz. Julia Karosi will not remain 'hidden' for long!"
